Pegasus
Case Study

Partnering towards a global workforce safety solution

Pegasus is Australia's leading workforce competency management software. Established in 1987, Pegasus was founded in the Hunter Valley.

Challenge

Develop a budget friendly fuel management system designed to serve a diverse range of industries, and is adaptable to a global user base.

01 /

Need to understand global customer base

02 /

Lack of workplace safety solutions

03 /

Outdated UI design with poor usability

04 /

Poor UX and CX at the core of the software

05 /

Concerns about technology and innovation

06 /

Problems with communication and relationships

Solution

Hybrid teams, a partnership for success

Teck Stack /

Results

- Design and development of the company's technology transformation roadmap

- Uplift the platforms with up to date solutions

- Bring new products to market

- Real workplace safety solution for global customer base.